The Class Prophecy

After spending many years in Hawaii, Rosie (Brown) Stevens and her family have decided to return to the U.S. to visit their families and friends. The following is an account that Rosie kept throughout her journey.

June 2, 1964--We arrived in Los Angeles, California, where we met Royce Bell. It seems Mr. Bell has become quite a personality around this big burg and with his looks and charm, the Hollywood oldsters, Martin and Mature, had better look out.

June 3--Hollywood--This afternoon while strolling around the fabulous city of romance, my husband and I met two young people who looked very familiar. On further questioning we discovered they were Lillian (Ross) Russell and Richard (Griffith) Curtis. After spending an interesting afternoon with them, we were given tickets to their new movie, "The Time Has Come".

After the show I was introduced to my good friend, Nancy Kotterman. She produced the famous hit movie, "How to Marry a Billionaire."

June 4--Reno--While passing through we stopped at an exclusive hotel. After we had been served in an elegant manner, a gentleman came up to us and introduced himself as John Wilcox, owner of the Ritz Wilcox hotel chain. Later we went to the floor show which featured "The Gaytoppers" with Fred (Phillips) Como, Bill (Ricketts) Fisher, Sidney (Brentlinger) Lanza, and Ronnie (Bullock) Liberace.

June 5--Salt Lake City--While swimming at Salt Lake beach, I heard someone close by call my name. After investigating I found it was Shelby McMillen. Miss McMillen is the highest paid model in the U.S.

June 6--Cheyenne--As we were leaving Cheyenne, we passed a large cattle ranch. The children wanted to stop to see the "cows". As they were gazing starry-eyed at the cattle, a young man came by on his pinto. Much to our surprise we recognized him as Norman Johnson. We chatted for a few minutes and then went on our way.

June 8--Boarded a plane headed for Miami, Florida.

June 9--Miami--Stopped for a visit at Glamour Studios, where Pat Paxson is head model. Her main ambition is to be in movies. Later that evening we took a train and headed north.

June 10--Santee, Georgia--Stopped off for a while at Peggy (Miller) Brown's new home. She and her husband are the parents of a bouncing baby boy.

June 11--West Point--Stopped off to see the Academy, but found Dick Zahller as head test pilot for supersonic jets. This is his eighth year in the Air Force.

June 13--Columbus--Arrived early this morning and went to Lazarus, where I found Janice Good, who is a distinguished stylist. This afternoon we visited Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henry. Bob and his wife (Lauretta Guthrie) have just built a new ranch home. Lauretta and Bob are the parents of twins, Marylyn and Carolyn.

June 15--Belle Center--At last we have arrived home. Our first stop was the Blue Rose, Belle Center's largest restaurant. There I found Donna Lowery, head waitress. She told me she was engaged to a sailor. While riding through the country, we passed a large farm, owned by Duane Risner and his wife. Near Kenton we saw a large farm completely infested with horses. On the big red barn was written in large white letters, CARL CARSON'S CORRAL.

Kenton--We were surprised to discover that Kenton now has its own TV station, WNUT-TV. It is run by Tom and Emma (Faber) Newman. I met Mary (Patterson) Chamberlain on the street. She had her two little boys with her.

Later we walked a few blocks to find a new building. Bob Reed has just opened his new office. He is now a full fledged lawyer, ready for any case in the book.

Directly on the square, is Judith's Beauty Salon, operated by our own Judy Byrd. Down a few blocks we spied Garrison's Saloon, which has a nationwide reputation. Being very curious, we entered the establishment to find that our old friend, Garrison Morrison (Gary Morris) was the owner of this notorious "joint". He changed his name to protect his innocent family.

One fateful day in early September, 1942, seventeen members of the now famous "Class of 1954" began their sojourn through the halls of Belle Center School.

Our teacher for this year, when we were endowed with Donna Lowery, Peggy Miller, and Bill Ricketts, was Mrs. Park.

Having led us as far as she could, Mrs. Park turned us over to our second grade instructor, Mrs. Kotterman. This year was much noted for its one enormous social event, the mock wedding of Miss Rose Marie Brown to Mr. Norman Johnson. Of course, the marriage was declared illegal by Mrs. Kotterman, and we remained in our seats for the remainder of the day. Judy Byrd joined us at this point of the journey.

The following year we climbed the stairs to Miss Cline's third grade room. Nothing unusual happened that year except for the arrival of our "Quiet Man", Duane Risner.

Mrs. Pessell inherited us for our fourth year of schooling but left Belle Center School after the year was ended. One can't blame her! During this year Royce Bell arrived from the West as a one-fourth Indian, no less.

In our fifth grade year, we initiated Mrs. Bloom in her return to teaching. Fred Phillips came to us that year. NO COMMENT.

The next year we were enchanted by the tales that Miss Colvin so ably tells. We gained Gary Morris that year.

At last we were in the high school building, where Mrs. Rhoades fell heir to the difficult task of being our home room teacher. We couldn't have asked for a better one.

After struggling through two more years, we were finally Freshmen, green Freshmen. It was in this class that we made our first real step toward our Senior trip. We sold popcorn at the football and basketball games. Remember the tantalizing odor of burnt popcorn that evolved throughout the building.

While we were Juniors, we did many things to swell our treasury. We sold candy, pop, sandwiches, and coffee at the ballgames. We presented a play, "No Boys Allowed", in the fall, while the following Spring was devoted to preparation for the Junior-Senior Banquet, which was a huge success. It has been cited by many as the finest in many, many years.

In this year, 1954, we reach the end of our long journey through our beloved school. We have had many projects this year of which this book which you now read is one. We are planning our play for April and our Commencement for May. We shall miss Belle Center High deeply. We hope BCHS will miss us.

Mr. Barra: "What is a cannibal?"
 Mike Cloud: "I don't know."
 Mr. Barra: "Come, now! If you ate your mother and father, what would you be?"
 Mike Cloud: "An orphan."

Miss Trumbull entered the classroom and saw Sue Duff sitting with her feet in the aisle and chewing gum.
 "Sue," exclaimed the teacher,
 "take that gum out of your mouth and put your feet in."

Kenny: "Why did the moron build a fire under his bed?"
 Royce: "The doctor had told him to go to Hot Springs."

Two fleas fell madly in love and, one beautiful day, got married.

Young, ambitious and industrious,
they labored hard and saved their earnings. One day they counted their money and discovered they had five dollars.

"If we saved five, we can save ten," they chortled and they continued to economize, to work hard, to shun all extravagance, until one day they had ten dollars.

Then they went out and bought their own dog!

DAFFY-NITIONS

Buffet: French for "Slug it out among yourselves."

Patience: A minor form of despair, disguised as a virtue.

Etc.: Sign used to make others believe you know more than you really do.

Duty, too often, is the thing that one expects from others.

WIFE: "I can't decide whether to go to a palmist or a mind reader."

HUSBAND: "Go to a palmist.
You have a palm."

A man is never truly loser,
During the rugged trial,
If at the close of any game,
He emerges with a smile.
